Board Matter

March 23, 2010

Madam Chairman— On March 8, Franconia Fire Station No. 5 (one of our volunteer stations) was the scene of a very generous contribution. AHEPA (American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association) presented a $10,000 check to the Fairfax County Urban Search and Rescue Team. The check was accepted on behalf of USAR by Battalion Chief Ed Brinkly.

AHEPA is the largest and oldest association of American citizens of Greek heritage. It was established in 1922 in Atlanta, Georgia in response to acts of bigotry.

AHEPA's mission is to promote the ancient Greek ideals of education, philanthropy, civic responsibility, and family and individual excellence. The donation it has just made to our Urban Search and Rescue Team exemplifies those ideals.

Madam Chairman—I ask for unanimous consent to bring members of AHEPA to the Board for recognition of their support of our Urban Search and Rescue team.
